The Joint Degree Program in Law & Business

Inter American University of Puerto Rico and Inter American University Economic and Administrative Science Faculty offer a joint degree program in law and business. Completion of the program leads to the degrees of Juris Doctor and Master in Business Administration (JD/MBA). The program is designed for students who have the background that will enable them to handle the rigorous and concentrated course of study. It allows students to gain expertise in both the law and general management practices. The program prepares students for careers in which an understanding of both legal and business principles is essential.

Prospective students must apply to and be separately admitted to both the Law School and the Business School, each of which will independently review and admit applicants. Prospective JD/MBA students has to be admitted first to the Law School and after one year of studies in the law school then be admitted to the MBA program. Questions relating to the admissions process at each school should be addressed directly to the individual admissions offices.
